The Coming, Going and Whereabouts of Our People and Other Folks

Dr. J. E. Shields spent Sunday in Weldon.

Rev. L. T. Singleton spent Monday in Halifax.

Mr. R. D. Webb spent last week in Williamston.

Attorney L. T. Vaughan, of Nashville, was here Tuesday.

Miss Mollie Knight visited at Speed since our last issue.

Mr. C. H. Bell, of Portsmouth, Va., has been here this week.

Rev. and Mrs. O. A. Moore, of Warsaw, are here on a visit to relatives.

Miss Susie Woodard has returned from a visit to Norfolk, Suffolk and Palmyra.

Mr. H. B. Hardy, representing the News and Observer was here Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. A. A. Shute left Wednesday for Elm City to see her daughter, Mrs. Hyman, who is sick.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Vaughan, of Washington, N. C., spent Sunday with Mrs. W. T. Vaughan.

Mrs. J. H. Hopkins left some days ago for Jacksonville, Fla., and other points in that section to visit relatives.

Mr. R. C. Dunn, of Enfield, is here to attend the Josey-Kitchin nuptials and is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Alexander, Jr.

Mr. Noah Biggs and Rev. R. A. McFarland attended a conference of the preachers of the Roanoke Association at Rocky Mount Tuesday.

Mr. J. G. Moore returned from Richmond Thursday, where he had been to see his son Frank, who had recently undergone an operation for appendicitis. He reported Frank as doing well and will soon be home.

Rev. Livingston Johnson, of Raleigh, spent Sunday here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Biggs. Mr. Johnson was here in the interest of raising money for the new church at Wake Forest. Mr. Johnson spoke for this cause in the Baptist church Sunday morning and we understand about $300.00 was raised, this amount being one-fifth of the sum subscribed by the Roanoke Association.

Announcement of Approaching Marriage.

Friday afternoon Miss Sallie Spruill Baker entertained a few of her intimate friends at a luncheon in honor of Miss Anna Maria Kitchin, daughter of Congressman Claude Kitchin of this place. Her home at Palmyra, a few miles from Scotland Neck, was beautifully decorated with trailing vines and ferns and presented a scene of beauty to the guests. Shortly after their arrival the guests were invited into the dining room which was attractively decorated with white carnations. The place cards, handpainted cupids, showed the guests their respective places and the party then enjoyed a most delicious six course luncheon. At the conclusion of this, quiet fell on the merry conversation when Miss Mary Cotten Johnson brought in a wedding cake with three tiny brides on it. One bride she presented to Miss Kitchin, another to Miss Undine Futrell, whose marriage to Dr. Wingate Johnson, of Winston-Salem, occurs in March, and as there was another, those present realized that a surprise was in store for them. Miss Johnson then gave the third bride to Miss Baker with the announcement that her marriage to Mr. Benjamin B. Everett would occur February 25th. After a number of good wishes, much merriment was caused by the cutting of the cake, the dime falling to the lot of Miss Lillie Way Baker, of Hamilton, both the button and thimble to Miss Cornelia Josey, and the ring as was fitting to Miss Sallie Baker. As favors each guest was given a dainty package of wedding cake.

Miss Baker is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Baker, of Palmyra. She is well known throughout the State, for her circle of friends is widespread. Added to her naturally sweet disposition, is the charm of a cultured mind. Mr. Benjamin B. Everett is a progressive young farmer of this community, whose interest in all things of benefit to the community, make him a leader in all good works. The friends of this popular young couple wish them joy and happiness and are glad that their future home will be in this community.

The guests at the luncheon were Miss Mary Cotten Johnson, of Plymouth, Mrs. John Boyle, Mrs. Robert Baker, Miss Lillie Way Baker, of Hamilton, Misses Maude, Hattie and Lizzie Leggett, Anna Kitchin, Undine Futrell, Helen Hilliard, Cornelia Josey, of Scotland Neck, and Arra Perry, of Wilmington.

Presiding Elder to Preach.

Rev. R. H. Willis, presiding elder of the Warrenton district, will preach at the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Willis is a fine preacher. The public is cordially invited to hear him.

Fire at Hobgood.

Fire broke out in the fruit stand used by Mr. Bailey at Hobgood Tuesday night destroying the fruit stand, a vacant store and a large store and storage room adjoining this vacant store, including a stock of general merchandise goods. These buildings, including stock of goods belonged to Mr. W. G. Hedgepeth and the loss falls heavily upon him, as he had only $1,100 insurance and his stock and buildings were easily worth $7,000.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Hedgepeth were in Scotland Neck, having come over to see "Beverly" and knew nothing of the fire until next morning.

The Scissors Club.

Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5 Miss Estelle House entertained the Scissors Club at her home on 12th street. Besides the usual sewing a number of games of rook were played and later a delicious salad course was served by Misses Annie House and Lydia Josey. Besides the regular members there were present Mrs. John Gray, Mrs. Joe Cotten, Misses Bessie Gray, Mildred Edwards, Lillie Belle Answorth, Mrs. J. Lonnie Dunn, of Scotland Neck, Miss Arra Perry, of Wilmington, Miss Mary Woodward, of Norfolk.

Court in Session.

The January term of Halifax Superior court convened at Halifax Monday, with Judge George W. Connor presiding, and Solicitor J. H. Kerr representing the State. The grand jury was drawn as follows:

C. L. McDowell, A. M. Inge, L. L. Bellamy, Josh Cobb, Jas. Cotton, W. G. Holliday, E. W. Crawley, W. B. Strickland, Jr., T. H. Isles, Thos. Billups, M. P. Butts, A. B. Pope, J. H. Lewis, J. K. Sears, A. J. Merritt, J. D. King, A. E. Hull, L. S. Locke, A. M. Inge was sworn in as foreman of the grand jury. M. H. Clark was appointed officer to the grand jury.

Judge Connor delivered a very impressive charge to the grand jury—calling special attention to the duties and responsibilities of a grand juror. Judge Connor is making a favorable impression upon all who come in contact with him.

Most of the cases disposed of Monday were jail cases and among them was O'Hara Staten, sent to the roads for two years for stealing $40.00 from N. E. Winslow.
